

HARMFUL BEHAVIOURS

Recognise it. Respond safely. Report it.

Most people in greyhound racing treat others properly. When the line is crossed, dismissing it as banter leaves someone else carrying the harm.

What can it look like?

● Abuse and threats

Shouting, intimidation, insults or physical aggression.

● Bullying and exclusion

Repeated put-downs, sniggering, deliberately leaving someone out or using power against them.

● Harassment

Unwanted staring, gestures, messages, touching or conduct that offends, belittles or threatens.

● Sexual misconduct

Unwelcome sexual comments, jokes, contact or behaviour.

● Discrimination and vilification

Treating someone unfairly or targeting them because of a protected characteristic.

● Victimisation

Punishing, isolating or threatening someone because they spoke up or supported another person.

What should I do?

1 CHECK IN

If it is safe, ask the person if they are okay.

2 SPEAK UP

A quiet challenge can change what happens next.

3 KEEP WHAT HELPS

Note when and where. Keep messages and witness details.

4 REPORT

Report what you experienced, witnessed or heard.

What happens after a report?

- GRV acknowledges and assesses the report.
- A trained investigator may contact you.
- Safety, privacy and support are considered.
- The matter may be investigated or referred.
